Lend A Hand By Donating Shoes Today.

The earthquake in Haiti is a reminder just how fragile our world is, and seeing the devastation that has affected so many, we have partnered once again with Soles4Souls to lend a helping hand.

All 55 of our stores are now accepting gently worn men's, women's and kids shoes until Sunday, January 31.

All the shoes collected will be sent directly to Soles4Souls for distribution to the Haitian people.

Perhaps you can organize a local shoe drive in your community and bring them in... during our last shoe drive... one young man actually went door-to-door in his neighborhood asking for gently worn shoes.

Many of us live with the threat of an earthquake every day, it's only a natural response to want to do something to help... please stop by and drop off one, two, or even three pair of shoes that can help someone in need today.

Thank you so much.
